

People of the Book

by Sarah Rossiter in the September 11, 2019 issue

Though some might think it heresy I confess it troubles me that though He said to those He led that a grapevine can't grow figs, isn't that just what we did, having turned His skin to white and changed his sight—our blue-eyed boy grafted to a Christian tree so even though He did decree we love our neighbors as ourselves, once we claimed Him for our own, we turned His people into “them.”